Because of requests from members of the Detweiler Family for a family history of the descendants of Grandfather Gideon Detweiler, I have done my utmost for a number of years to obtain the records of the Detweiler Family. The results of my labors are embodied in this volume. Although the record is not so complete as I had hoped it might be, I trust it will be interesting to all who read it.

I wish to thank you all who so faithfully helped to compile this record, as it now appears, by providing information requested of you.

EXPLANATION

The arrangement of the text may be readily understood by the reader if the following instructions are followed. First, pay no attention to page numbers. Use family numbers instead. For example: Family No. 10 means that this family is the tenth one so far recorded. Fourth Generation means four steps down from the first named, Melchior Detweiler. The figure following the word Generation refers you back to the father of the family number given.

The first-mentioned names in the Index are those who are directly related to the Detweilers. The column of figures to the right shows the corresponding family numbers by which the name is recorded.

To All Members of This Family

Space has been provided in the form of blank pages for all those who wish to keep a record of their families hereafter. If anyone should desire to write a family history after we are no longer here on this earth, it will not be so difficult to find the records of our forefathers.

My prayer is that we can all live and lead such lives so that God can accept us as His children when the call comes. "Therefore be ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh."

Following are the abbreviations used in this book: "b." for born; "d." for died; "m." for married.

DESCENDANTS OF GIDEON DETWEILER

Family No. 1. First Generation.

Melchior Detweiler arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on September 16, 1736, on the ship "Princess Augustus," Samuel Merchant, Master, from Rotterdam, Holland, last from Cowes, England. Melchior Detweiler was a native of the Palatinate, a province of France. He was the father of four sons.

1. Christian Detweiler.
2. Jacob Detweiler.
3. John Detweiler.
4. Rudolph Detweiler. Family No. 2.

Family No. 2. Second Generation. 1.

Rudolph Detweiler was born in 1733. He was the father of four sons.

1. Rudolph Detweiler.
2. Henry Detweiler.
3. Jacob Detweiler.
4. Christian Detweiler. Family No. 3.

Family No. 3. Third Generation. 2.

Christian Detweiler in 1789 was married to Barbara Fisher in Berks County, Pa., near the Blue Mountain. Soon afterwards he moved, taking his father Rudolph (Family No. 2) with him, to Bedford County, now Somerset County, Pa. From there in 1791 he removed, taking his father with him, to Henderson Township, now Brady Township, Huntingdon County, Pa. There Rudolph selected a place on the farm of his son Christian for a graveyard, and he was the second one to be buried in it. Six generations of his descendants are represented in this burying place. Christian was the father of seven children.

1. Elizabeth Detweiler m. Christian King.
2. Nancy Detweiler m. Jacob Yoder.
3. John Detweiler. Single. Died young.
4. Samuel Detweiler. Single. Died young.

6 DESCENDANTS OF GIDEON DETWEILER

5. David Detweiler. Single. Died young.
6. Christian Detweiler. Family No. 4.
7. Jacob Detweiler. Married. Offspring unknown.

Family No. 4. Fourth Generation. 3.

Christian Detweiler was married to Elizabeth Kurtz. To this union were born nine children in Mifflin County, Pa. Their children are

1. John Detweiler. Died young.
2. Veronica Detweiler. Died young.
3. Abraham Detweiler. Died young.
4. Adam Detweiler m. Saloma Miller.
5. Gideon Detweiler m. Lydia Kanagy. Family No. 5.
6. Christian Detweiler m. Rebecca Kauffman.
7. Magdalena Detweiler m. Daniel Byler.
8. Steven Detweiler m. Barbara Plank.
9. Samuel Detweiler m. Elizabeth Bixler.

The dates of birth and death of the above-named members of the Christian Detweiler family are unknown. Except for Gideon Detweiler (Family No. 5), whose descendants appear in the following pages, the above information is all that can be given. It was my purpose to give as accurately as possible in the following pages the information as it was sent to me. Sometimes the information did not contain birth dates in full or place of birth.

Gideon Detweiler moved to Lawrence County, Pa., between 1851 and 1858, from Mifflin County, Pa. The farm on which he moved and lived until he died was divided into three farms, which are now occupied by three of his descendants, Family No. 149, Family No. 152, and Family No. 153. Family No. 149 now lives on that part of the farm on which Gideon lived and died. The farm is located in Lawrence County, Pa., one mile west of New Wilmington, on the Sharon and New Castle Road, Route 18. The house that was standing on the farm when Gideon died is not there now. A log house stood on the farm when Gideon first moved there. Later a house was built over the spring, and this structure was afterwards moved to the farm where Family No. 152 now lives. In 1883 or 1890 the house now standing on the farm was erected. At this time the farm was divided into three farms. The deeds show that the heirs all signed off on the second day of April, 1838, and divided the farm into three shares. The barn burned down in October, 1908, and a new one was built the next spring.

Grandfather Gideon Detweiler was the fifth generation of the Detweiler descendants. There are seven generations of his descendants given in this book. At the time the book was being written, only one of his children was living. She is listed in Family No. 155. Following are the number of his descendants:

	Born	Dead	Living
Children	10	9	1
Grandchildren	70	23	47
Great-grandchildren	321	39	282
Great-great-grandchildren	385	31	349
Great-great-great-grandchildren	1	0	0
	<hr/> 787	<hr/> 102	<hr/> 679

In the family were born six pairs of twins and one set of triplets. Seventy-two years have elapsed from the time of his death to the writing of this book. None of his children were married at the time of his death, the oldest child being twenty-two years old, and the youngest only two weeks.

After Grandfather's death, Grandmother Lydia (Kanagy) Detweiler lived on the home farm with the children until 1838 or 1890 when she went to live with her daughter Katie (Family No. 148). She lived there until she died on June 23, 1893. She lived in widowhood for twenty-five years. She died of consumption at the age of seventy years. The house in which she lived at her daughter's place is still standing and is now used as a wash house. Family No. 153 is now living on this place.

Grandmother had three sisters and four brothers. Her sisters were as follows: Lizzie, married to Simeon Yoder, whose descendants live in Mifflin Co., Pa.; Frany married to Jonas Yoder, whose descendants live in Logan Co., Ohio; Sarah, married to Adam Kurtz, who has only one living descendant, Katie, widow of John H. Byler, living in Lawrence Co., Pa. To this last-mentioned descendant I am very grateful for her assistance in providing me with much information for this book. Grandmother's brothers were as follows: Solomon Kanagy, who was not a member of the Amish Church. His whereabouts is unknown. Rudy, Oscar, and Joseph were members of the Mennonite Church in Indiana. It is not known to whom they were married. The above information is all that I am able to give regarding Grandmother's brothers and sisters. There were some half brothers and half sisters, but their names are unknown.

Family No. 5. Fifth Generation. 4.

Gideon Detweiler, b. March 23, 1824, in Mifflin Co., Pa.; d. of hemorrhage April, 1868; age 43 years; buried in Lawrence Co., Pa.
